

ARBITRATION— SUBMISSION FOR INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION (UNCITRAL RULES)

- We, the undersigned parties, agree to submit to arbitration, before [name an arbitrator or] a Fellow of the College of Commercial Arbitrators, and in accordance with the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules in effect on the date of this Agreement, the following dispute(s): [describe dispute(s) with great specificity]. The appointing authority will be the College of Commercial Arbitrators
- The arbitration shall be conducted in [city, state, country] and in the [English, or Italian, or Chinese] language.
- The matter shall be heard and decided by [one or three] arbitrator(s). All arbitrators appointed to hear and decide disputes submitted by this Agreement shall be [citizens of _____ countries] or [may be citizens of any country except the following: _____].
- We further agree that any court having jurisdiction to do so may enter a judgment upon the award made in this arbitration.

Dated: _____

Comment by Ed Costello: Parties, and/or their counsel, may be suspicious of prospective arbitrators who are nationals of the opponent's home country. So, many of these clauses contain a provision that no arbitrator may be a national (or permanent resident) of the home country of any of the parties. Some ADR providers, e.g., the American Arbitration Association, have the same stipulation in their rules.
